WHEREAS, the University of Alabama’s Fall 2021 Return Plan states that “absence guidelines will return to pre-pandemic expectations”

WHEREAS, the CDC currently recommends that those who test positive for COVID-19 isolate themselves for 14 days and those who have been exposed quarantine until they are able to get tested<sup>[1]</sup>

WHEREAS, the University of Alabama states that “all faculty, staff, and students who test positive for CV19 must isolate in accordance with CDC and ADPH guidance”<sup>[2]</sup>

WHEREAS, the University of Alabama’s Fall 2021 Return Plan does not require professors to supply students who have missed class due to quarantine protocols after testing positive or being exposed to COVID-19 with any excused absences, notes, or lesson outlines to assist with classes missed

WHEREAS, the state of Alabama has seen an increase in positive COVID-19 cases due to complications such as the Delta Variant

WHEREAS, cases at the University of Alabama--Tuscaloosa have seen an increase in COVID-19 cases from 56 student cases from 8/9-8/15 to 103 cases from 8/16-8/22<sup>[3]</sup>

THEREFORE, be it resolved, that the University of Alabama Student Government Association calls on the University of Alabama to revise its absence guidelines for the rest of the Fall 2021 semester to require excused absences for students who must quarantine due to a positive COVID-19 test and further require professors to provide students with materials, notes, or lesson outlines for classes missed due to quarantine for a positive COVID-19 test

Be it further resolved, that these guidelines, if accepted, should be reevaluated based on necessity for the Spring 2022 semester
