

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FALL 2023 SECOND SGA SPECIAL ELECTION ANNOUNCEMENT

TUSCALOOSA — Oct. 23, 2023

A second Fall 2023 SGA Special Election is scheduled to be held on Wednesday, Nov. 29, 2023. A run-off election (if necessary) is planned for Tuesday, Dec. 5, 2023. Voting will be open on myBama from 7:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m. CST on the day of the scheduled election. Additional information regarding the election timeline can be found on SGA Elections.

Available positions on the ballot include one (1) Senate seat for the College of Education, one (1) Senate seat for the Graduate School, and one (1) Senate seat for the Law School. The Candidate Filing Period is Nov. 3-8, 2023, and any eligible student wishing to run for elected office must submit an online Application & Statement of Candidacy declaring intent to seek office by 11:59 p.m. CST on Wed., Nov. 8, 2023.

Candidates and their campaign manager must also attend one (1) of the Mandatory Candidate Informational Meetings hosted virtually by the Elections Board and SGA on Nov. 1, Nov. 2, and Nov. 8. All sessions will be held from 6:15 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. via the following Zoom link. In addition to detailing the role and responsibilities of the available senate position, the informational session will cover the election timeline, candidacy requirements, and campaign regulations.
